Kansas City Artist Royce Diamond Releases “The Launch EP”

Kansas City, Missouri – Kansas City hip-hop artist Royce Diamond announced the upcoming release of his newest musical project – “The Launch EP” mixed by DJ G-Train. The EP will be released and available for free download on Tuesday, November 8, 2011 through RoyceDiamond.com. The EP contains 8 remixes of the entire Signal Flow album which was released earlier this year, as well as six original songs featuring artists: Louiz Rip (“Quindaro,” “Goin”), Smoov Confusion (“Quindaro”), and Ohio producer/emcee Ill Poetic (“Running From Me”).

The single “Theme Music” will be the first to debut on November 8th with a music video appearing on the Official Royce Diamond YouTube page. Music videos from previous albums Signal Flow and Aficionado also appear on his YouTube page. This EP release has been scheduled in the middle of a busy twelve months for Royce. He said, “I’ve been working really hard this year to move forward and not be stagnant. Nowadays you can be on everyone’s radar one minute and lost in the shuffle the next.”

Royce Diamond released Signal Flow in the spring of this year and is scheduled to release his brand new album, Mirrors and Smoke, due out March 13, 2012 which will be his fourth full-length studio album. He has been showcasing his talents and promoting his current album throughout the year. His single “The Dotte” is a fan favorite and his latest album has showcased a slightly different sound than albums previous.
